I will describe an asymptotic result on the fractional Allen-Cahn equation involving the fractional laplacian. The limiting interface is a stationary nonlocal minimal surface. A striking phenomenon is a strong convergence result due to a geometric measure theory result by Marstrand.