

May 13: Jeffrey Adams (University of Maryland), Unipotent representations.

I will give an overview of the current state of the Atlas of Lie groups and Representations project, with an emphasis on computing all unipotent representations of real exceptional groups.