

THE KAKEYA NEEDLE PROBLEM FOR RECTIFIABLE SETS

MARIANNA CSORNYEI

We show that the classical results about rotating a line segment in arbitrarily small area, and the existence of a Besicovitch and a Nikodym set hold if we replace the line segment by an arbitrary rectifiable set. This is a joint work with Alan Chang.