

SOME APPLICATIONS OF MULTISCALE PROJECTIONS

PABLO SHMERKIN

I will describe a useful and flexible method to estimate the Hausdorff (and related) dimensions of images of sets and measures, based on multiscale decompositions and entropy. I will then present some older and newer applications to the dimensions of projections of self-similar sets, sumsets and distance sets.