September 21: David Kazhdan (Hebrew University), "Endoscopic decomposition of the Bernstein center."

I will outline a geometric approach to the question of why the stable part of the Bernstein center is a subring. Joint work with Roman Bezrukavnikov and Yakov Varshavsky.