Richard Melrose
(MIT)

“Spin structures and singularities”

Abstract

I will discuss an example of a singular geometric structure and how to think about the analysis and geometry related to it. I will start with the notion of a spin structure on a manifold, how these can fail to exist and the sorts of singular spin structures that always exist.

Followed by pizza in room 2-290